

2018-2019 STOCKGROWERS LEADERSHIP SERIES

APPLICATIONS DUE NOVEMBER 20, 2017

What?

- 16-month program established by the Montana Stockgrowers Association
- Topics include policy work, banking and finance, management, business relationships, legislature training, awareness of industry topics, media training, and beef consumer concerns
- Build leadership strengths and skills that apply whether working in the industry or on the ranch

Why?

- The future of our industry depends on robust leaders who not only have strengths and skills working with cattle, but also have valuable knowledge in the business of ranching and regulation

Who?

- Members of the Montana ranching community, age 25-45, who want to build upon their leadership strengths and become more involved in our industry and organization
- 5 participants will be selected through an application process, closing November 20
- Leadership coach, Sarah Bohnenkamp (@millcoach), will guide participants throughout the year

When?

- 10 on-site meetings beginning January 2018
- January 22-24-Helena; March 14-16(tentative dates)-Helena; June 14-16-Dillon; July TBD-Bozeman area; September 5-6-Big Sky; October-TBD-Billings; December-TBD-Billings; February 2019-Helena; April 9-11(tentative dates)-Washington D.C.; June-TBD-Miles City
- 5 at-home assignments throughout the year

How?

- $500 Tuition (Can be made in payments throughout the year). Most meals and hotel rooms covered by Leadership Series.
- Funding for the Stockgrowers Leadership Series is provided by the Montana Stockgrowers Foundation and other industry partners.

Apply for the Stockgrowers Leadership Series at mtbeef.org/leadership-series by November 20, 2017. Contact the Montana Stockgrowers Association for more information at (406) 442-3420 or email Kori Anderson at kori@mtbeef.org.