

TRAINING OPPORTUNITY

Montana Water Rights Training

The Montana Department of Natural Resources and Conservation (DNRC) Water Rights Bureau is hosting a full-day workshop focusing on current water right application processes, with special attention to recent legislative changes and court decisions.

Training Topics May Include:

- Montana Water Rights 101
- Overview of Adjudication, Distribution and Enforcement
- New Appropriations: Permits and Exceptions
- Recent Legislative and Rule Changes
- Change Applications and Exceptions

📍 Location:

MT Heritage Center
225 N. Roberts St.
Helena, MT

🕒 Date:

June 1, 2026

💰 Cost:

$50

Additional Information:

- Open to all. This workshop is ideal for anyone interested in gaining a solid understanding of current Montana water rights processes.
- A detailed agenda will be provided closer to the training.
- Lunch and refreshments will be provided.
- Registration is limited.

Registration Closes: May 15, 2026

TO REGISTER CONTACT:

Jake Mohrmann

DNRC Water Sciences Bureau Chief

Jacob.mohrmann@mt.gov

The Montana Department of Natural Resources & Conservation

